

Call for Applications:
KICK-OFF FUNDING
for Collaborative Projects in the Study of Culture

As a currently running open call, the Research Centre for the Study of Culture (RCSC) offers

Kick-off Funding of up to 2.500 Euro for researchers working on a grant application for collaborative projects in the study of culture.

Eligible formats include, e.g., exploratory meetings and workshops helping the formation of the project group and the development of a research proposal (eligible costs: travel and accommodation). At least one member of the group of researchers involved needs to be based at Justus Liebig University.

Applicants are welcome to enquire about individual options and requirements.

Contact: Prof. Dr. Jan Rupp (RCSC Coordinator)

Jan.Rupp@gcsc.uni-giessen.de or 0641-99 300 52

Applications (1 page A4, detailing the projected research group, proposal and prospective costs) can be submitted any time to the RCSC Coordinator.