

Workshop

Intercultural Training for International Ph.D. Students

Organizational details

Instructor: Stefanie Rübbert

Date: November 13, 2014, from 15:00 – 19:00

Location: Lokal International, Eichendorffring 111, 35394 Giessen

ECTS: –

Aims

The aim of this workshop is to raise awareness of cultural differences, prepare participants for a stay abroad and cooperation with foreign colleagues or make your stay in Germany easier.

Course Contents

- Intercultural sensitisation of perception / behaviour
- Change of perspective in the intercultural context
- Intercultural communication in the field
- practical exercises and simulations with other participants

Target group

International PhD students at JLU and doctoral candidates and postdoctoral researchers who are planning to go abroad

Course language

English

Registration

Please register until November 3, 2014 via e-mail at promotionsstudium-international@uni-giessen.de

Please include the following information about yourself in the registration: the faculty you belong to, your home country and how long you have been staying in Giessen.

Trainer

Stefanie Rübberth is a trainer for Intercultural Competence and works with different cultural teams to help them attain skills, knowledge and experience allowing them to deal with intercultural differences. Ms. Rübberth uses visualizations and editing in the group to improve the conscious discussion and the learning of action strategies in an intercultural context.