

Information on Data Protection

Justus Liebig University Giessen (JLU) is processing your personal data for the purpose of organising your stay abroad and your temporary enrolment at JLU Giessen. The lawful basis is Article 6, paragraph 1 (a) of the European General Data Protection Regulation (EU-GDPR) in conjunction with your consent, or rather Article 6, paragraph 1 b) EU-GDPR in case you have entered into a binding agreement regarding your stay abroad.

Your data will be submitted to the database Moveon and, therefore, to our software provider QS Unisolution and will be stored at the data centre TelemaxX Telekommunikation GmbH. Your data may be disclosed to those employees of JLU or of other authorities (e.g. Studentenwerk) who require them for organising your stay abroad.

Your data remain stored as long as they are required for the named purpose, at least, however, for 5 years.

You have the right at any time to request information about your data and to obtain rectification of inaccurate data or to obtain restriction of the processing of inaccurate data (Articles 15, 16 and 18 of the EU-GDPR). If you consider the processing of your data to be unlawful, you may lodge a complaint with the Hessian Data Protection Officer (Article 77 of the EU-GDPR, § 55 of the Hessian Data Protection and Freedom of Information Act). If you have not concluded a binding agreement regarding your stay abroad, you have the right to withdraw your consent to the processing of your data and to request erasure of your data, although the processing of your data before withdrawal of consent will remain lawful (Article 7, paragraph 3 and Article 17 EU-GDPR). You also have the right to request a portable copy of your data or to have such copy transmitted to another controller (Article 20 EU-GDPR).
